As a Christian Patriots Minister, Historian, Constitutionalist, Documentarian, Author, Louie E. Johnston Jr. personifies the American dream, being blessed of God in the greatest nation on earth for opportunity. He recalls preschool days with grandmother "MaMaw" in her rented 1 room shack, collecting roof rainwater in a barrel to boil and drink, a jar for a toilet, her warm featherbed in cold nights with no heat, very limited food, long walks to Church every Sunday, and learning her devout love of God and Country. First work was in hayfields at 12, summers as a laborer for Brick Masons at 14, earning $1.35 hourly, installing fencing, Burger King assistant Manager, fabricating and installing carports, and working as a Teamster as Casual Labor for Yellow Freight System while in Junior College, where he was noticed and hired full time as a Dock Supervisor at age 21. Johnston was raised in a pro union home, yet Supervised 400 Teamsters in an eleven year career as a company man with Yellow Freight System as Terminal Operations Manager, leaving to become an entrepreneur, a Pro Employee consultant for non union Nissan, expanding to serve 100 similar companies.

Johnston today has an MBA, been transported through high security underground Pentagon tunnels as a rare civilian to dine in the home of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Merrill McPeak in Washington, DC, earned numerous U.S. Military Contracts, employed 1,000, earned a U.S. Patent for Military Computer Systems, among 50 state of the art systems implemented internationally in numerous industries, particularly Health Care, specializing as an expert in Behavioral Health Care.

Johnston excelled in several Sports, earned a Junior college scholarship in tennis, winning the first Tennessee Junior College State Tournament in Singles and Double, then officiated High School and Youth Football, Baseball, Softball, coached Men's, Boys, and Girls teams in multiple sports, coached a Fastpitch softball World Series Champion, a High School team, and 2 University teams, wrote the "Coaches Column" for Fastpitch World Magazine and his book Winning Fastpitch, was purchased by 18 Olympic Softball Teams.

Johnston has been a Foster parent, was awarded full custody of his 3 children in 1981, ages 14 months to 7 years, took in his brother's 3 orphaned teens in 2002, and raised a wonderful step daughter from age 6. At the peak of business success with his Blue Wing USA, Johnston founded Layman Lessons Ministries in 2003 and has served since as a full time unpaid Minister, Preacher, and Counselor to the Homeless and Addicted in Nashville, TN, guiding thousands off the streets to productive lives, actually living in his Training Center with the Homeless for 7 years, while also Producing Praise and Worship CDs, Homeless documentaries, Christian Patriot books and documentaries, authoring God and Country Legislation.

Layman Lessons Church Saturday morning outdoor open air Street Ministries enjoyed a weekly revival lasting over 12 years with 8,770 Homeless making decisions to accept Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, documented week by week. When it ceased from lack of funding and volunteers, it expanded to a national network of food donors providing food to help feed over 20,000 regularly in Tennessee alone, as well as other states.

Providing Food, Bottled water, Rescue Blankets, to the Homeless and Hopeless is expanding constantly,
